The holiday season is a time of thanks and offers us an opportunity to share the holiday spirit with others.

At Teneo, we are so grateful of our clients, workshop participants, friends and all of the people we've had the opportunity to meet this year.

This year, we have chosen to say "Thank You" on behalf of our clients and friends, through the Spirit of Giving to others. We've learned of a family who in the past year has suffered great hardship and loss. Earlier this year, they lost their husband/father to a sudden heart attack. This family lives in rural Northern Ontario and consists of a now single Mom and five daughters ranging in age from 7-17. It has been an extremely difficult year for them as the father was the bread winner of the family and their home is in desperate need of repairs. Needless to say there is not much money for gift giving among their family this holiday season. The Teneo Elves have decided to help create a joyous holiday for this much deserving family. We've shopped, wrapped and just finished shipping the items we've chosen and we hope you'll be proud of your contribution to this holiday gift.

We wish you a joyous holiday season with your loved ones and a very prosperous and healthy 2007.

Give yourself a great gift and invest in yourself for a prosperous 2007 business year

*This holiday season,
take time to express
your kindness and appreciation with your loved ones and colleagues, other than just giving the traditional gift.
Let your heart give
the gift.*
